On motion of Dr. Schell the collections for the Iowa Wesleyan University were also reported.

Introduced—L. K. Billingsly, D. D., treasurer and corresponding secretary of the Iowa Methodist Hospital; W. S. Gardner, field secretary of Graham Hospital and J. B. Trimble, D. D., field secretary of the laymen's missionary movement were introduced and addressed the Conference.

Extention of Time—On motion the time was extended.

Resolution—On motion of J. M. McClelland the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, we have heard with great satisfaction of the new movement among men, initiated November 1906, known as the Laymen's Missionary Movement and the unprecedented growth and promise of the same, and,

WHEREAS, this movement has determined to add to its other achievements a national missionary campaign beginning October 1909 and closing May 1910, in which seventy cities will be visited as convention centers, Davenport, contiguous to our conference is named as one of said cities, therefore,

Resolved, (1) That the Iowa Conference hereby records its unqualified indorsement of the movement in general, and especially of the contemplated national campaign, (2) that we greatly appreciate the possibility of participating in the campaign by the selection of Davenport as a convention city, (3) that we use our best endeavor to instruct and interest our constituency, and as far as possible attend the layman's convention ourselves and secure the attendance of representative layman from our districts and charges.

Introduced—Henry Joseph Coker, D. D., field secretary of the southwest division of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension was introduced and addressed the Conference.

Resolution—On motion of J. M. McClelland the following resolution was adopted: That we as a Conference request field secretary H. J. Coker to organize a convention within the bounds of our Conference in the interest of home missions and church extension, said convention to be held on or about the 14th and 15th of December, 1909, said convention to be held preferably at Fairfield, that said convention shall be a delegated body embracing the pastors and one member for ever fifty of the membership in each charge or fraction thereof and it shall be self entertaining. A registration fee of fifty cents shall be charged each delegate, to create a fund for defraying the traveling expenses of workers and speakers, also printing and postage. For the carrying of this plan we nominate the following committee: H. J. Coker, chairman, the members of the general committee for this general conference district, the district superintendents, the district missionary secretaries, the presidents of the district Leagues, the conference president and secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and the pastors of Fairfield, Washington and Ottumwa, said committee to meet at the call of the chairman.

Communication—The following letter was received from Dr. Coxe: Dear Brethren—I keenly regret that I cannot be with you in your annual session, and enjoy the brotherly greetings, the recitals of toil and victory, the plannings for larger conquest in the name of our common Lord; but the condition of my wife's health is such that I cannot leave her, but must, so soon as she is able for the brief journey, take her to the seaside to secure the benefit of ocean breezes.

This will be the second time in my ministry that I have been absent from a Conference session. In 1864 I joined the Vermont Conference; in 1874 I was placed in your ranks by Bishop Gilbert Haven; forty-five years I have endeavored to "make full proof of my ministry" in the effective relation. During that time I have been laid aside by illness but twice, and for a period covering less than two months in all. Since coming to California I have not been idle, but have "supplied" for two of our leading churches in Los Angeles, and two in San Francisco, each for a period of from four to eighteen weeks, during the absence of the pastors on vacation, and have met other occasional calls for service.

My general health is excellent; but the serious impairment of my hearing forbids all thought of further active pastoral service. I rejoice in the labors and successes of the noble band of younger men whom I have seen year by year come into the Conference. "They must increase"—in grace, in knowledge, in every good work; and none will rejoice in their triumphs more than I. Their achievements and record will be my joy and crown. I am content to step aside that these lithe and vigorous workers may do the larger and better tasks which the times demand. I shall follow each of you with interest, with sympathy, with prayer. For myself I ask your kind remembrance, and a place in your love and prayers; and now request that you grant me a supernumerary relation.

Yours sincerely,

J. C. W. Coxe.

Adjournment—On motion, it was ordered that when we adjourn we adjourn to meet at 1:30 p. m.

Order of the day—The order of the day was taken up and Eugene Allen presented the report of the committee on the publication of the History of the Iowa Conference, and on motion, it was adopted. It was ordered that this committee communicate with the absentees and solicit their subscriptions for copies of the History.

Evangelist—On motion, the Bishop was requested to appoint R. A. Bruce as Conference evangelist.

Presentation—On behalf of the ministers of the Ottumwa District, the Bishop presented H. N. Smith and wife a silver set as a token of their regard and in recognition of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and Bro. Smith's entrance into the ministry.

Adjournment — On motion, the Conference adjourned with the benediction by G. W. Byrkit.

AFTERNOON SESSION, 1:30 O'clock.

The Bishop called the Conference to order and the Journal of the morning session was read.

Question 25—Who are the triers of appeals? I. B. Schreckengast, J. W. Potter, J. E. Corley, Eugene Allen, George Filmer.

Question 24—Who are the superannuated preachers? W. N. Hall, H. Ruyon, J. B. Hill, W. A. Phelps, I. N. Busby, W. C. Shippen, J. H. Armacost, G. W. Byrkit, E. H. Waring, J. G. Barton, Renix Weese, D. C. Smith, T. B. Hughes, J. W. Fraker, J. M. Coates, J. S. Ferguson, A. W. Haines, F. W. Adams, W. R. Stryker, E. S. Daly, John Potter, H. F. Pugh, G. W. Barber.

Question 28—What are the claims on the Conference fund? $7,000.

Question 29—What has been received on these claims and how has it been applied? $5,796.

Reports—The following committee reports were adopted: Home Mission and Church Extension.

Resolutions—Report of Committee on Resolutions:

Resolved, That we hereby record our hearty appreciation of the kindly, courteous and dignified manner in which Bishop Henry Spellmeyer has presided over our deliberations. Also of the help we received from his soul stirring sermon, "A Eulogy of the Bible," and his many other helpful addresses. We shall always hail with pleasure his coming among us, whenever in the providence of God it may be his lot to do so.

Resolved, That the members of the Iowa Annual Conference, will long remember the session of 1909 on account of the royal entertainment furnished us by the good people of Winfield, who, regardless of denominational lines, have so generously contributed to our comfort.

We hereby tender our thanks to the pastor, the Rev. A. B. Cadwell, who so recently came among us a stranger, but is such no longer, and to the ladies of the church for their untiring efforts in our behalf; and to the pastors and members of the sister churches for the kindly courtesies shown us by them.

Resolved, That it is a matter of increasing gratification to us to note the growing interest taken in the workings of the Church, by our brethren of the Laity, this being particularly noticable in their activity in the Missionary movement, as well as that providing for a more just and adequate support for our retired ministers, and the widows and orphans of our deceased ministers.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORT

BURLINGTON DISTRICT

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

I submit this my first report of the Burlington District with thanksgiving to Almighty God by whose providence I have been kept through the year, and by whose favor the work has been carried forward.

CHANGES: At the last session of Conference Winfield was left open with the understanding that a member of the Illinois Conference should be appointed pastor in exchange for Dr. J. C. Willits transferred to Decatur, Ill. In accordance with this arrangement, the Rev. Albert B. Cadwell was placed in charge at Winfield. The selection was a happy one, and Bro. Cadwell has won high commendation as a preacher and administrator.

The Rev. R. D. Pool was under the necessity of seeking a milder climate and immediately after Conference took work in the East Oklahoma Mission. The Rev. C. P. Zenor a member of the Indiana Conference was secured and appointed pastor at Columbus Junction. He has done a splendid work.

The Rev. E. J. Starr found it necessary to give up his work early in the summer. Rev. W. J. Fowler, a graduate of the class of 1909 at Wesleyan, who had assisted Bro. Starr during the year assumed charge of the Mount Pleasant West Circuit and finished the year with credit to himself and profit to the charge.

A very serious illness compelled the Rev. G. W. Barber to relinquish Salem about the first of July. Rev. J. A. Wilson, a student in Iowa Wesleyan, and Rev. R. P. Roberts, some time a pastor in the United Brethren church, completed the year. Bro. Barber has regained his health somewhat, but is not yet able to take work.

CHURCH PROPERTY: The church at Rome was sold early in the year, as also the church at Cedar on the Hillsboro charge. It is hoped that a new church may replace the former. The latter was abandoned and the proceeds of the sale expended on the church property at Stockport.

At Oakville our people have been using the Methodist Protestant church. During the year this property has been purchased and is now the property of the Methodist Episcopal church.

First Church Burlington has purchased one of the finest lots in the city upon which a parsonage commodious, convenient and beautiful is being erected.

Mt. Pleasant has disposed of the old church and will erect during the coming year a church commensurate with the needs of that strategic situation. A lot has been purchased and a beautiful and modern parsonage is now in process of erection.

Grace Church, Burlington is in the midst of a general renovation, Fairfield has expended $1,000 on church and parsonage, Yarmouth has paid on parsonage debt and for improvements about $1,250, Winfield has paid on church subscriptions this year $4,646, Wayland has met all indebtedness on the parsonage and made improvements on church property, Burlington West and Harrison Ave. has expended nearly $1,000.00 on parsonage and church, the major portion of which was applied on the Harrison Ave. church. In addition many minor improvements have been made which cannot be specified here.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP: The pastors have been faithful in the chief pursuit of the ministry, the winning of souls. Some excellent revival meetings were held, though in many cases sickness and inclement weather made success in any large measure impossible. The careful pruning of church records and a large number of removals by letter forbid the hope of any appreciable advance in membership.

Acting upon the suggestion of Rev. C. R. Zimmerman a tent meeting was projected for Cairo lying west of Wapello and north of Morning Sun. Under the leadership of Bros. Zimmerman, Cadwell, Rowe and Zenor the meeting was held in the latter part of July. Though the actual conversions did not meet our expectation yet the effect upon the community was most desirable.

BROTHERHOOD: While there are but four chapters of the Brotherhood organized in the District, yet the Pastors where this organization exists speak in the highest praise of the efficiency of the Brotherhood in helping them get hold of the men of their charges. I can wish for the speedy multiplication of such a helpful organization.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS: Progress is being made slowly in bringing our Sunday Schools up to the point of efficiency which the cause and the Kingdom demand. Trained teachers willing to devote themselves unsparingly and trained officers are the need of the hour. We hail with expectation the plans suggested by the secretaries of the Board, welcome the teacher's correspondence course and urge upon our pastors the necessity of advising all teachers to take up the course as quickly as it is available.

EPWORTH LEAGUE: Efficient work is being done by the Epworth League in the District. A District convention of great interest and profit was held at Wapello. Miss Webb, a Deaconess graduate of the Des Moines Training school will devote her time and energy to the District during the coming year under the auspices of the Epworth League.

We are glad to record the excellent work done by the Ladies' Aid Societies. Much money has been contributed toward improvements and the running expenses of the church, and much other work accomplished in aid of the pastors.

We gladly make mention of the good done by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and The Woman's Home Missionary Society, commend their fidelity and wish for them a larger patronage on the part of the women of Methodism.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE: Two sessions of the District Conference were held, the first at New London and the second at Mediapolis. Both proved to be seasons of intellectual invigoration and spiritual refreshment. The Rev. C. S. Cooper of the Anti-Saloon League and Rev. J. C. Kendrick representing the Conference Claimants stirred our hearts by a review of the progress made and by prophecy with reference to their respective work. We unhesitatingly commend the Anti-Saloon League as the most powerful adversary of the organized liquor interests, and rejoice in its splendid achievements.

As early as possible after the Fall session of the District Conference the apportionments for benevolences were sent out. Latest reports indicate some advance over last year.

IOWA WESLEYAN: Iowa Wesleyan closed one of the best years in many respects of her history. The class of 1909 was the largest ever graduated from her halls, while the outlook for the coming year is good, practically every room in Hershey Hall having been engaged at an earlier date than usual. Other matters of general importance will appear in the President's report, such as financial conditions, progress of the endowment campaign, improvement of the grounds, and the settlement of those matters in dispute with the German college.

The Rev. J. H. Taylor, a brother beloved in the Christian ministry, will ask at this time for a change of relation. His decision to enter another field of work has been reached after many weeks of serious consideration and earnest prayer.

I desire to acknowledge my obligation to the pastors of the District, who have been unfailing in their kindness and constant in their brotherly consideration. To their fidelity is due the credit for whatever progress the District has made.

It gives me pleasure to express my appreciation of the splendid service rendered by my predecessor, Dr. T. J. Myers. His work abides.

J. M. McCLELLAND.

KEOKUK DISTRICT

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

In submitting this my sixth annual report of the Keokuk District, I wish to express my profound gratitude to God for His gracious providence over me; and the pleasure with which I acknowledge the fidelity to duty, and the cordial co-operation of the pastors and people of the district.

The past year has been free from strife; brotherly love has continued through the year.

Of the thirty charges composing the district, three were left to be supplied; Drakeville, Troy and West Grove. For these we secured A. D. Huff, C. Springer and S. H. Sperry. Brother Huff continued to the end of the year. Brother Springer resigned the charge the 1st of June, and Brother Sperry the 1st of February. For Troy we secured Wm. F. T. Evans to finish out the year, and W. E. Berg completed the year at West Grove. During the winter while engaged in revival meetings on the West Point Circuit of which he was pastor, John Davis fell from the approach to a barn and fractured the head of the right femur, which disabled him so that the 1st of April he was compelled to resign his charge, and Warren J. Philips was appointed to finish out the year.

At 2 o'clock A. M. on July 8th, after an illness of but one hour, Brother James A. Sinclair, pastor at Montrose, passed from labor to reward. His funeral was held in the church of which he was pastor at 4 P. M. on the 9th, and interment was at Mt. Pleasant the next day. After a lingering illness, Sister W. E. Berg, wife of Brother Berg, passed from her home in the parsonage June 12, 1909, at West Grove to her heavenly home, and her remains were laid to rest in the family cemetery at Klemma, Iowa. With the above exceptions the pastors and families have continued in labors abundant till the present.

At the beginning of my term on the district the amount allowed for ministerial support for pastors and Presiding Elder was $25,342, including parsonage rental. It is, for this year, $32,160, being an increase of $6,918. This year the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension appropriated to be used in the Keokuk District $200. This amount was distributed equally between five of the weaker charges, which has proved a blessing to the pastors serving these charges, and a stimulant to the charges themselves. Should we eliminate these five weak charges, the average salaries allowed, including house rent, would be $1,161.60.

VALUE OF CHURCH PROPERTY: Six years ago the value of churches and parsonages was $229,600; now it is $339,850, an increase of $110,250.

During this time nine churches and twelve parsonages have been built, or rebuilt, and to almost all of the church and parsonage property improvements have been made. This year but two churches and one parsonage have been built. A splendid chapel at New Boston on Montrose charge, costing $2,546, rebuilding of the Sharon church of Exline Circuit, at a cost of $1,000, beside the old material, and a parsonage at Jerome at a cost of about $8,000. These, with the sixteen churches and nine parsonages erected during the term of my predecessor, about completes the work of supplying places of worship and homes for our pastors.

BENEVOLENT COLLECTIONS: During my term of office a steady increase in the interest in the cause of benevolence is manifested. Six years ago the amount raised for all benevolent causes was $5,515. Last year it was $8,930. An increase of $3,415. Owing to the failure of twelve of the pastors in reporting to me in time for this report, I am unable to give the total raised this year. But estimating the amount of these, we show a very creditable increase.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS: The training of the children has not been neglected. The excellent literature published by our Book Concern is used almost exclusively, and the work done in most of the schools, is of a high grade. The enrollment is about equal to our church membership; and quite a goodly number are reported as converted and uniting with the church.

EPWORTH LEAGUE: The work of the Epworth League is quite improved since our last report, both for our young people and for the children. An excellent convention was held in June, at which over 100 were enrolled. The general theme, "Christ Exalted Over All," ran through the entire program. An advance step was taken in institute work under the leadership of Rev. Peter Jacobs, while Rev. Homer, C. Stuntz electrified the vast audience of young people with his masterful address, "Christ Exalted By Foreign Missions."

WOMENS' WORK: The women of the District have been especially active in the Master's work. The Ladies' Aid Society, W. H. M. Society and W. F. M. Society are thoroughly organized throughout the greater part of the charges, and are aiding very materially in building up the Master's Kingdom.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD: In a very few charges we have flourishing organizations, and they are doing much good. But thus far we have not been able to utilize this wise provision for putting to work that large factor represented by the men of the church in the smaller towns and country charges.

DISTRICT CONFERENCES: Two very profitable District Conferences were held during the year and were largely attended.

PERMANENT FUND: The continued interest shown in this wise provision for Conference Claimants is most gratifying. The hearty response to the appeal for this fund, and the willingness to make the claim a pro rata claim, insures in the near future ample provision for those most worthy members of our church.

GRAHAM PROTESTANT HOSPITAL: This institution located at Keokuk, being the property of the W. H. M. Society, and doing such excellent work for suffering humanity, challenges our admiration and merits our support.

TEMPERANCE: The four counties covered by the Keokuk District are mostly "dry," and we are doing what we can to keep them so. But for the baleful influence of the saloon interests entrenched in the two largest cities in the District, the entire territory would soon become "dry." Much credit for this good showing is due the Anti-Saloon League, whose efficient District Superintendent is our own worthy brother, Rev. C. S. Cooper.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: We rejoice in the brightening prospects for our Iowa Wesleyan University, under the efficient Presidency of Rev. Edwin A. Schell, D. D., and assure him of our continued and hearty support.

REVIVALS: The spirit of revival has not been as wide spread as we desire, yet but few charges have been without its blessed influence. The 18 pastors reporting report 480 conversions and about the same accessions to the church. The new order in keeping closer track of our membership has resulted in pruning the lists of the members, till very many show a decrease in members, but in reality are stronger for the pruning.

CONCLUSION: In closing this report I wish to extend to the sixty-five pastors and their families, who have served charges within this District during the past six years, and to their people, my sincere thanks for the uniform courtesy received at their hands. That I have made mistakes I am conscious, but that I have purposely done wrong in the arduous duties laid upon me, I am unconscious.

And now as I lay down the duties given me to perform, my earnest prayer is for you all.

Respectfully Submitted,

A. V. KENDRICK,
District Superintendent.

MUSCATINE DISTRICT

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

The Muscatine District has twenty-eight pastoral charges and sixty-two churches, and twenty-six parsonages. At the close of last conference session, Buffalo, Lexington and Sweetland charges were left to be supplied. I secured supplies, Bro. A. J. Luebbers for Buffalo, Bro. O. S. Hatfield for Lexington, and Bro. Rollo J. Fisher for Sweetland. Bro. Fisher was at that time a deacon in the N. W. Indiana, but some months since was transferred to the Iowa Conference. During May last, Bro. E. A. Brinton went from Oxford, Iowa, into South America—a missionary to Paraguay, thus leaving a vacancy, which I filled by changing Bro. F. E. Morrison from Grandview to Oxford, and supplying Grandview with Bro. Alfred Barker, a local preacher in the Senior class of Iowa Wesleyan University.

The work of the year has gone forward, on the whole, in a very successful manner. In the first six weeks of the year, I held all the First Quarterly Conferences so as to get the business of the charges started early. This has pleased the preachers and people and aided materially in the finances of the year.

After an increase last year of $1,400 in pastors' salaries and $100 in the salary of the District Superintendent the churches this year made a further increase of $2,500 in pastors' salaries and also increased the District Superintendent's salary $250.00 so that these two items of ministerial support show an increase of $4,250.00. We hope for healthy increases in all the items of our benevolent collections. More and more, our preachers are recognizing that they must not only be good, able and acceptable preachers, but they must also be able and efficient leaders and directors of the activities of the church and people among whom they labor. I believe the preachers in this district are rising to the occasion and trying to meet the demands of the hour as never before. While there has been that wide spread revival and numerical results of ingathering of new members which the pastors labored and prayed for, yet the results have been by no means, inconsiderable, and the pastors have been abundant and diligent in effort, holding protracted revival meetings in every charge and many of them have been intensely busy caring for those gathered into the churches last year. At Muscatine, Bros. Osborn, Ireland and Strong have had very great responsibility in caring for the new members from the fact that these brethren were new to the work there. Early in the year, a sad bereavement fell on Bro. and Sister Osborn at 1st Church Muscatine, their little daughter Florence was taken ill with diphtheria, and despite all that was done for her recovery, she passed into the spirit world.

"Our hearts stood still in such a sorrow,
To see a lily crushed in blooming,
But hope immortal waits the morrow
The resurrection at his coming."

The somber wings of death spread over the home of Bro. and Sister Phillips also, in their loss of the sainted mother of Sister Phillips, who had lived with them during many of her last years, but her going was like the gathering of ripened sheaves and golden grain. She was ready and waiting for the Master's call, so after the long journey of more than eighty years of this life, when life's task was fully done, she went to sleep, trusting in Him who is able to awake her in His likeness. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

Building and improvement of Church and Parsonage property this year, has exceeded that of last year, as the reports of the pastors will show. A new church was dedicated by Dr. C. L. Stafford at Kalona, built by the heroic efforts of our people there under the ministry of Bro. Frank Seed, the pastor. It is a concrete foundation, basement under all, and brick superstructure with slate roof. This church cost $8,000 and will seat 500 persons. Another church is almost completed at Nichols, under the ministry of Bro. S. T. Shirley. At South English the people are contemplating building a new church the coming year. At Muscatine circuit, the old brick parsonage was sold this year and the proceeds divided between Muscatine North and Muscatine South circuits, formed last conference by Bishop Quayle. With the proceeds thus secured and additional subscriptions these two charges, have purchased two parsonages for the preachers of these charges at a total cost of about $3,500.

One of the gravest problems we have to face, is the problem of the country church. In many places, the members of these churches either sell or rent their farms to irreligious persons—often foreign—almost stranded. There are now seven such churches in my district.

Two very interesting and profitable sessions of the District Conference were held this year and the District Conference decided to discontinue the Fall session hereafter, holding only the summer session near the close of the Conference year.

One district Epworth League convention was held at Oxford, Iowa, greatly to the profit of those attending. Dr. Stunz was present and aroused the convention to billowy enthusiasm on missions. The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have both held conventions. The Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues are on the upward trend and are evangelistic and religious educational forces of tremendous and far reaching influence. Nearly all our Sunday Schools use exclusively our own literature, which I regard the best now in the world-market.

The subscriptions for our church advocates have been pushed on our people by the pastors, but there is almost no demand on the part of our people for our advocates.

The conundrum of the hour is: What is the matter with our papers and what is the matter with our people? Are our people lacking in literary taste, intellectual grasp or loyalty and interest sufficient to read our advocates, or are the papers so dry and stale in substance and form as to fail in cultivating a demand for their continuance?

The work of the church goes on, nevertheless, and souls are being saved, the church is being established, civic, religious, and commercial righteousness are increasing, and Christian character and the kingdom of God coming.

Respectfully Submitted,

J. A. BOATMAN.

District Superintendent.

OSKALOOSA DISTRICT

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

I herein present the annual report of Oskaloosa District for conference year 1908-9.

Entering upon my work immediately after the adjournment of conference I found it necessary on account of charges left to be supplied and some changes occurring to make the following adjustments. J. A. Murray was appointed to supply the Kellogg work, T. B. Hughes the Lynnvile charge, W. H. Slack was changed from Beacon and appointed to the Thornburg charge. L. F. Powell transferring to Beaver City, Nebraska; W. J. Hamilton was changed from Beacon to Victor, and I. O. Kemble was appointed to the Beacon charge. Later Wm. DeGaris was placed in charge of the Taintor work. All these have rendered efficient service and none more so than Drs. Hughes and Kemble, both of whom would be welcomed back for another year were it not for the fact that Dr. Hughes expects to spend the winter on the Pacific coast on account of his wife's health. In the case of Dr. Kemble the Beacon church is asking to make a practical test of the pastorate with the time limit removed.

The pastors all entered upon their work promptly and have rendered faithful service through the year.

The pastors' reports will show that all the interests of the Church have been carefully looked after, and while all that was hoped may not have been accomplished yet I am confident that the reports will show that advance has been made on all lines.

It is not my purpose to take the time of the conference session, or space in the Conference Journal, by tabulating in my report the work of each pastor, as the Year-Book will, or ought to, show all this in a better form, and where all interested will have opportunity of getting the information to far better advantage than I can give it, so that my purpose will be merely to give a summary of the work done through the year.

CHURCHES AND PARSONAGES: The district is well supplied, if not over supplied, with church buildings, and every charge has a parsonage, the greater part of them in good condition. Nearly all the churches and parsonages have been kept in good repair while in some cases the work done merits special mention. The church at What Cheer, C. W. Wilson pastor, has been improved at a cost of over $1,000.00, the church and parsonage at Malcom, L. A. Crull pastor, have been improved at a like cost, the church at Pella, G. Monkman pastor, at Beacon I. O. Kemble pastor, at over $200.00 and others ranging from $50.00 to $100.00 and over. The greatest improvements however have been in remodeling and enlarging the parsonage at Grinnell, at a cost of over $3,000.00 and the building of a new parsonage, modern and up-to-date in every sense of the word, at Brooklyn, making it probably at the present time the most convenient and desirable parsonage in the conference, at a cost of something over $3,000.00. At Pleasant View on the Killduff work a beautiful new church is nearing completion costing over $3,500.00.

I found within the bounds of the Oskaloosa district what to me was an anomaly in Methodism, viz., eight Methodist churches under lock and key, unoccupied, and unused. Four of these have been re-opened and if plans can be carried out that are now on foot at least three others will be occupied immediately after conference and if possible the other one sold during the coming year. Among the ones already re-opened is Kendrick chapel. C. W. Wilson at my request has taken up that appointment and over thirty members are enrolled and fine congregations attending the services and the appointment will be attached to What Cheer the coming year. On the Victor charge the Moravian church located between Victor and Brooklyn has been purchased and a society formed and this with Guernsey will probably compose the Guernsey circuit the coming year.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT, BENEVOLENCES, ETC.: With only one or two exceptions the reports will show a creditable increase in salaries and almost without exception the salaries paid in full. Some little confusion has resulted from the Ministerial Support being made to include beside the Pastor's salary the District claim, Bishops' claim, and Conference Claimants. This however has been explained over and over until fully understood, and the pastors have carefully taken the matter in hand and seen to it that the pro rata division has been made.

The benevolences have also had proper attention, and while as usual some mistakes have been made as to time and manner of taking the collections, and all will not be realized that was hoped, it has in no case been the result of carelessness or indifference and I am confident the reports will show an increase in most if not all of the collections.

It is only a matter of justice to these pastors however that I call attention to a peculiar state of affairs as to our benevolences. While for some years the general agitation has been in the direction of a reduction of the number of the collections the opposite result has come about. For instance under Conference Claimants we now have at least three collections, viz., Conference Claimants, Permanent Fund, and the General Sect.; under Education we have Regular Educational collection, Children's Day, I. W. U. regular collection, and the Poor Whites of the South. Under Temperance we have the Anti-Saloon League, the Temperance Alliance, the General Sect., etc., under the Hospitals two, Children's Home Finding two, etc., etc., so that with some eighteen or twenty of these extra causes claiming the right of representation in the pulpits and access to the people the tendency is to make the pastor a financial agent and the churches a collecting agency. Under the circumstances it will be a compliment to the zeal and diligence of the pastors if no decrease shall be reported in the regular collections.

SPECIAL MEETINGS: Nearly all the churches have been favored with good revivals and a healthy growth, with some quite extensive revivals. The unfortunate mistake was made in waiting until after the Holidays to begin special revival efforts, when on account of unfavorable weather and bad roads the meetings were greatly hindered and in some cases defeated. The district tent has been in active service since the middle of June and with good results. Tent meetings have been held at the following places: Taintor, Ewart, the Moravian church on the Victor charge, Thornburg, and Coal Creek, the preachers mutually helping each other and the district superintendent giving what aid was possible along with his regular work. The probability is that the tent will be used after Conference through October.

Two sessions of the District Conference were held the first in October at New Sharon, and the other at Reasoner, both well attended and of special profit. The District Epworth League convention was held in Montezuma in June and with an excellent program and under the leadership and enthusiasm of Dr. Fralm of Pella, the District President, the convention was an inspiration to our young people. The Epworth Leagues with few exceptions are in good condition and doing good service throughout the district though not measuring up to their largest possibilities. The Sunday Schools are loyal to the Church and almost without exception using our Church literature.

The peculiar environment of the district makes it more difficult to accomplish results for our Iowa Wesleyan University than in any other part of the conference as we are not only remote from the university with difficult railroad connections but with three colleges in Oskaloosa in the very heart of the district, one of the largest and strongest in the state at Grinnell, a Baptist college at Pella and all the roads leading direct to Des Moines combine to make it a most difficult field to accomplish results for our own institution. In the face of all these difficulties I am sure the pastors have been loyal to the university and have done their best and their reports all things considered will compare favorably with the other districts.

PASTORS, FAMILIES, ETC.: It has been a cause of devout thanksgiving that the parsonage homes have been largely preserved from prolonged and serious sickness and with but two exceptions from the death messenger. There have however been instances of illness and affliction requiring real Christian fortitude to bear, and in the two instances referred to sorrow that called forth true Christian resignation. In all instances however these graces were in full measure manifested. An unusual number have been necessitated to undergo severe surgical operations but all have recovered, or are recovering. W. L. Clapp found it necessary in early winter to go to Iowa Methodist Hospital where in a very severe operation he found skillful treatment and careful nursing and at the earliest possible moment was back again at his work and on duty. The others who have gone through the trying experience of surgical operations are Mrs. W. H. Slack, Mrs. Lloyd Tennant, and Frank E. Pfoutz, and representing the parsonage home Don. Handy who also had the benefit of the Iowa Methodist Hospital. The death angel has entered the parsonage at Pella where the little son tenderly and heartily welcomed tarried but a little time when its spirit took its flight to the home beyond and left them with quiet resignation to suffer the disappointment and mourn their loss. Bereavement also came to the parsonage at Grinnell when the aged, and for some time, afflicted, mother of Brother Handy, who had for some years had the tender care and attention of the household, quietly at the approach of the evening hour "fell asleep" to rest and wait the resurrection morn.

Dr. T. B. Hughes officiated at the funeral and with the family and friends committed the remains to their resting place.

Aside from these and with but one or two other instances of temporary sickness the pastors and their families have been blessed with excellent health. The district superintendent has not known an hour's indisposition or found it necessary to falter in face of heat or cold, sunshine, or storm, and in addition to the regular work of the district has been able to "lend a hand" in revivals, tent meetings, conventions, dedications, etc., outside the district as well as within and closes the year with heartfelt appreciation of the cordial welcome accorded him by preachers and people, all over the district, the royal entertainment afforded him wherever he has gone, with many doors and homes opened to him that he could not enter for want of time, but with the assurance given him that "the latch string will always be out" at his coming. These with many other things that time will not suffice to mention, have combined to make the year, though "in labors abundant" one of delightful fellowship, and joyful service. It is to him a matter of serious regret that an annual conference must intervene to possibly break some of these delightful and happy associations but even if so it will always, as to this year, remain in memory as a year of unsurpassed fellowship, and brotherly co-operation.

Respectfully Submitted,
C. L. STAFFORD,
District Superintendent.

OTTUMWA DISTRICT

Dear Brethren:

In the providence of God I submit to you my fourth annual report as Superintendent of the Ottumwa District. The past year will show itself in results to have been the best in every way of the four. We have been blessed with general and gracious revivals, the pastors have been better supported, more money has been expended on church and parsonage building and improving, the old debts have practically all been wiped out, the benevolences have received a far more generous recognition and the pastors and their people have labored together in unity and love. Some needed changes will no doubt be made in the pastoral appointments this year but there is not one among our preachers who cannot return to his former charge with a welcome almost unanimous. This District is blessed with a delightful people and a great ministry. Ninety-eight people live in our parsonage homes. Sickness has paid serious visits to some but the shadow of death has fallen upon none during the past four years. Thus we and ours delight in the good providences of God.

PASTORAL CHANGES: In November Bishop Quayle effected a happy exchange between Dr. H. W. Hargett, pastor of 1st Church Ottumwa, and Dr. T. W. Jeffrey, pastor of 1st Church Carthage, Mo. Dr. Jeffrey was royally received by 1st Church and happy results speak of his splendid abilities. He has responded to numerous calls from our Leagues and churches and by his magnificent addresses and sermons and brotherly spirit has won his way into all our hearts. N. A. Roberts who was appointed Supply of the Chilli-cothe charge found himself unable to remain and we changed J. E. Ward from the Iconium charge to fill the place and placed Brother C. N. Hewitt, a minister in the Evangelical church, at Iconium. Bother Hewitt is a delightful man and has enjoyed a year of marked success.

CHANGES IN THE MAP: Of some of our charges is demanded by the transient character of the large mining population in the Western part of the District. These towns and camps increase and wane with the months. We are trying to provide with the gospel some 14,000 of these people made up of numerous nationalities, colors and tongues. We are doing this work without a dollar of outside help except one Sunday School which is supplied with helps by our Sunday School Union. In these camps we are trying to make one dollar do the work of several. One of our churches stands with closed doors with scores of children in the streets because we have not a dollar with which to provide a service. A more inviting field for mission work I cannot conceive. It will take a hundred years to exhaust these beds of coal and constant changes will occur in the plan of the charges responsible for these miners with the coming and going of these camps and their population. We feel that the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension must come to our aid in this emergency. With $300.00 we can cover the deficiency in necessary support for three safe pastors in this field.

GREAT ECONOMY Will be noticed in the exhibit of cost per church for ministerial support within the bounds of this district, based upon the statistics of 1908. The charges of all the other conferences in Iowa, averaged in cost for support of the District Superintendent per church $33.33. The Ottumwa District average was $25.50 per church. Average per church for support of pastor in the other Iowa conferences was $452.64. In this district $362.60. Average per member in all the conferencees in Iowa for support of pastor and District Superintendent was $4.88. In this District $4.44. We also call attention to this, that while the average of the three other conferences in Iowa are but 63 churches per District the Ottumwa district has 81 churches and 47 of these are inland churches which must be reached by team, requiring 1,600 miles of country lane travel to serve them during a single year. In comparison, the New York East conference has an average of but 79 churches per district and nearly every appointment is reached by interurban lines at a fraction of cost, yet they pay their District Superintendents a salary averaging $3,625.00 each, almost twice the average salary in this conference. The above comparative statistics will show that the work of this district is carried on with great economy. We rejoice that it has been possible for the ministry to serve this great territory so well at so small an expense to the laymen.

EVANGELISTIC services have been held in all the charges of the district, resulting in some 1,400 professed conversions and large accessions. This does not include the results of "Billie" Sunday's great meeting held in Ottumwa in November and December, except such as united with our Methodism. All our pastors are evangelists and the results of their efforts deserve special mention, but we must refer you for this to the statistical reports.

BUILDING AND IMPROVING our church and parsonage property has continued through the year. The reports will show a large sum expended. A splendid new church was completed at Lovilia, costing $5,000.00 and dedicated in November free from debt. The new church at Epworth on the Farson charge was also finished and dedicated without debt. At Agency the church building has been converted into a modern and imposing structure at a cost of over $4,000.00 and will be reopened soon. Knoxville, Fremont, Farson, Avery, Buxton, Zion and Chillicothe churches have been refurnished and improved at a cost of from $200 to $1,200 each. Bussy, Kirkville, Bladensburg, and in fact nearly all the churches and parsonages of the district have undergone more or less improving.

DEBT PAYING has been the order of the year. Among those lifted are Ottumwa, 1st Church several thousand dollars. Albia, another of $1,500.00. At Harvey a lesser but serious debt of $350.00. Under this head we mention Main St. Ottumwa as having come out from under a heavy rent obligation by purchasing a handsome parsonage. Farson has canceled their parsonage debt of $600.00 and numerous other churches have cleared up smaller or larger indebtedness.

THE BENEVOLENCES of our church have been given earnest consideration and we believe the reports will show a substantial increase. The larger percent of our charges will be able to report "all benevolences in full." The Laymen's Missionary Movement has brought to us increased inspiration. The "Conquest of the Kingdom" witnesseth the breaking of a better day. We hail with delight its glorious dawning."

TEMPERANCE agitation and education among us is active and progressive. This District stands positively committed against its arch enemy in spiritual and moral reform, the saloon. We express our perfect confidence in the Anti-Saloon League as the institution best adapted to organize and command our forces in the annihilation of the liquor traffic, and compliment and commend our brother, Rev. C. S. Cooper, a member of this Conference and a District Superintendent of the League.

THE IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY is a constant source of pride and joy to our pastors and laymen. Our faith in its present safe and our hopes for its future well founded. We congratulate its President, Dr. Edwin A. Schell, and his able professors in the delightful record of the past year, and bid them God speed and a renewal of our fidelity with the future.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE maintains its position of influence and usefulness in the faith and life of our young people. The Annual Convention, held in Agency in June, was a season of great grace. A number of the representative men of Methodism were on its program, among them Dr. Homer Stuntz who delivered two magnificent addresses much to the edification of the Leaguers. Our district supports a Deaconess in training in Des Moines and also presented sister Anna Lawson, a missionary in India from this district, with a tent costing some $120.00.

THE WOMAN'S H. M. S. AND THE WOMAN'S F. M. S. have both prospered and enlarged during the year. Each Society held a well attended and enthusiastic convention, the first at First Church Ottumwa and the second at Richland.

THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE met in its two sessions at Batavia in October and at Lovillia in June. The first session was brief but full of interest. The second session was characterised by spiritual fervor, splendid papers and addresses and happy fellowship. The laymen were present in goodly numbers and a District Laymen's Association was launched by adopting a Constitution and By-Laws and electing the necessary officers. Mr. F. A. Shipfer of Sigourney, was elected President and Mr. E. H. Gamble Secretary and Treasurer. Five Vice Presidents were also elected as chairmen of the five departments of the association. Much is expected from this organization.

IN CONCLUSION: The year has been strenuous in service but happy in fellowship with the brethren. God is good. His service is delightful and if we may, we'll serve another day.

H. NEWTON SMITH,
District Superintendent.

REPORT OF DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEES

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The American Bible Society, interdenominational in its relation to the Church, has the important function of disseminating the Holy Scriptures throughout the world translated into every language and dialect.

The coming Kingdom with both its remarkable advance in world wide evangelism and its extensive development of the home field necessitates a constantly increasing expenditure to meet the demands. In consideration of this:

We endorse the plan of putting two colporteurs in Iowa for work among the foreign speaking people.

We recommend the urging of special gifts.

And that this benevolent cause be carefully presented from our pulpits this year, and the full claims if possible of the Society be met, in a manner the pastor may deem most suitable.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We have read the report of the book committee to the annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the year 1908, and note with pleasure; that the Methodist Book Concern in the face of general financial depression and strenuous competition is able to declare a dividend of $160,000.

We rejoice especially in the excellence of our Sunday School publications and we believe that they should be used exclusively by our school.

We heartily endorse the suggestion that an anniversary, in the interest of Methodist literature be held at each session of the Annual Conference.

We note in the report this statement: "Our family of Advocates may be too large, and it might have been better if our General Conference had poured more of the variety of the parent church into a smaller number of Advocates," and realizing that as loyal, intelligent Methodists there should be found in every Methodist home one of our own church papers, we believe that the consolidation of the Western, Northwestern and Central Christian Advocates with a substantial decrease in the subscription price would greatly aid in extending their circulation.

Respectfully Submitted,
Committee.

BROTHERHOOD.

The Brotherhood movement being among the important forward movements of the Church and believing that the charges of the Iowa conference should not lag behind the Church in other territory, also believing that the men of each charge should be committed to some definite form of Christian activity, we the committee on Brotherhood urge that the pastors of the conference give special attention to the organization and promotion of Brotherhood work during the coming conference year. We would also recommend the election of the following as conference officers, President C. L. Tenant. Secretary, C. H. Myers.

Committee.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION.

Whereas God is giving the church an ever enlarging and diversified field of activity in our Home Mission domain, therefore

Resolved, That we as a Conference are highly gratified with the intensifying activity of the church in occupying these various fields, and the steadily increasing interest of the church expressed in her contributions to the cause.

Resolved, That we will take care to place the Christian Republic in each home entitled to receive it under the wise provision of the Society and urge our people to read it.

Resolved, That we as a Conference anticipate with pleasure the Home Missionary convention to be held in Fairfield in December, and pray for its largest success.

Resolved, That we urge provision whereby the needy fields within the bounds of our Conference may be occupied, and the people helped and saved.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Your Committee on Education would report that in its judgment no cause should receive more loyal support from the church than that of Christian Education. In particular we call your attention to the following:

1st. CHILDREN'S DAY FUND: During the year closing June, 1908, 2,082 students, representing twenty-four different nationalities, were aided by the Children's Day Fund. The Christian Student for February, 1909, gives a detailed statement, showing by nationalities and races, by intended callings, and from various other points of view who they were. This magazine is replete with valuable educational information, is accessible to all our people, and they should be urged to secure it. We urge our pastors to give prominence to our Children's Day collection. The number of students in our Methodist schools increased by nearly ten thousand in three years, and the demands on the Loan Fund have been more than the funds could meet.

2d. SOUTHERN SCHOOLS: The trust committed to the Board of Education by the General Conference of 1908 in the care of the schools for white people in the South entitles it to increased attention on the part of the Conference. The collection asked is an amount equal to 3 percent of the apportionment for Foreign Missions. This is a most valuable investment for our church. Each number of "The Christian Student" during the past year has had articles on this subject, and the information should stir the church. The educational destitution of the mountain regions of the South is little understood by our people. The facts are appalling. By ancestry, by tradition, and by natural sympathies, these people are of us, and the new generation now in our schools furnishes some of our most promising young people. The Board of Education has limited its asking to the most urgent needs. Every dollar of shortage means serious embarrassment of our work. This is one of the worthiest of our benevolences. The influence of our schools is beyond estimate. Every pastor should get the facts and give diligent attention to this collection.

3d. We congratulate the Conference on the slight increase in the Educational Collection and urge all our pastors to see that this collection, the most vital of our Conference of all our collections, be not neglected, but that every pastor seek the full quota of twenty-five cents a member for this cause.

4th. We urge that special interest be taken in the raising of the two hundred and fifty thousand dollars endowment fund, begun four years ago, and that Dr. E. A. Schell as leader in the movement may have the loyal and earnest support of all. It is essential to the future prosperity of the college and must be raised. We commend Dr. Schell for his earnest endeavor and congratulate him upon his success and express our faith that through his leadership the fund will be completed.

5th. Whereas there is a plan launched to organize an Inter-Conference Ministerial Institute. Be it resolved that we elect a Conference Institute committee of three the chairman of which with the chairman of like committee from each of the other Conferences co-operating shall form an executive committee who shall have authority to organize and maintain an Inter-Conference Ministerial Institute. With the provisions that:

(1.) They shall have no power to incur any financial indebtedness on the Iowa Conference.

(2.) That the faculty shall as far as possible be manned by our strongest Theological professors.

(3.) That the tuition fee shall not exceed $10.00.

We recommend that J. M. McClelland, Rev. Eugene Allen and C. L. Tennant, as the Conference Institute Committee.

6th. We recommend as visitor to the Illinois Woman's College, at Jacksonville, W. A. Longnecker, to Garrett Biblical Institute U. S. Smith one year, and Fred Tucker two years; to Iowa Wesleyan University, A. V. Kendrick; to the Woman's College at Baltimore, W. G. Wilson, as trustees for Iowa Wesleyan University, J. F. Riggs and Charles H. Keck.

Educational Committee.

EUGENE ALLEN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We are convinced that the opportunity offered the Church in the outside, now Christian countries today is urgent beyond all precedent. Profound gratitude is due to God for the marked triumph of the Gospel as the Church has used its amazing opportunity. We are glad that Methodism has one thousand toilers in the foreign fields. But, at its best, the response of the Church is not adequate to the present need.

We urge each minister in the Conference to give himself unsparingly to agitation and the dissemination of information regarding the matchless missionary enterprises which are open to us. We also beg him to present an irresistible appeal for the investment of the sympathy, prayer, treasure and, more than all, the life of the entire Church in perfecting those enterprises.

We unqualifiedly commend and endorse the propaganda of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and call all men who reside within the bounds of the Conference to co-operate with its plan for Parliaments in Sioux City and Davenport in the near future, and we call on them to pray that these assemblies of Christian Laymen may prove inspirational and dynamic aids to the Missionary aggressiveness of the forces of Christ in Iowa.

We request the Conference to organize a Board of Foreign Missions to arrange at least one meeting during the year in a central location at which a representative of the General Board may present the vital facts pertaining to the progress achieved in the evangelization of the world.

Respectfully Submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We again express our gratitude for the Epworth League that has trained millions of our members, contributed a multitude of efficient young men to our official boards, thousands more to our ministry, and an army of our best young men and women to the mission fields and other forms of special service.

We welcome the provision of the last General Conference for official statistics showing the strength and progress of this important movement, and congratulate the church that the reports thus far published indicate the splendid fact that it is organized nearly to its practicable limit.

We note with pleasure the success of another International Convention, with its attendance of 6,000 young people, and believe that its enthusiasm and enterprise can not fail to reach the entire church through such a splendid representative attendance.

We note with pleasure the generous loyalty of the young people of the League in assuming the support of its administrative work, and as pastors we encourage our young people to meet in full their obligations to the Central Office.

We heartily commend the institutes that, under the management of the Central Office, within three years have spread from the Central West to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, as containing the promise of new life to the Epworth League and to the church, and recognizing the needs of such an institute being held within the bounds of the Iowa Conference. Be it resolved,

That, there be created an Epworth League Board of Control for this Conference, in accordance with the official plans of the Central Office, consisting of the District Superintendents of the Conference, the District Presidents of Epworth Leagues of the Conference, and one other member of each District who shall be elected by the District Cabinets.

And we recommend that the District Leagues take immediate steps to the organization of such a Board, and that the Chairman of the Committee on Epworth Leagues be instructed to notify the District Cabinets of this action and call the first meeting of the Conference Board as soon as its representatives have been chosen.

THE FREEDMAN'S AID SOCIETY.

We, your committee on The Freedman's Aid Society, recognize that these are crises days for the negro race. The secular press and the popular prejudice of the people asserting that the higher education of the negro is fatal to his advancement, complicates the problem and postpones the day of his greater liberation and development. With a glad heart we note the phenomenal progress of the black man in the last quarter of a century. We believe this a prophesy of the greater things that await him and that he should have a fair chance and square deal. With those who have studied this problem we believe that the future of the negro is dependent upon himself and that he must be the leader and emancipator of his race. In order that he may furnish himself and be furnished with the power of leadership we commend the Freedman's Aid Society as the most potent factor in the solution of this great problem.

We welcome to our conference Dr. Maveety Secretary of the board of the Freedman's Aid Society and pledge to him our hearty support in the cause he so ably represents.

We further commend the observance of Lincoln Day as a suitable time for the presentation of the facts concerning this cause and urge upon the brethren the raising in full of the apportionment to their respective charges.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, the members of the Iowa Conference, realizing the extent of Sabbath desecration in our land and especially in the bounds of our pastoral charges unite in urging our people to observe the Sabbath day and keep it holy.

To discourage such forms of amusement as naturally destroy the sacredness and divine purpose of the Sabbath day. We recommend that our pastors emphasize frequently the duty of Christians to exercise special care to keep holy the Sabbath day.

We also urge that steps be taken toward such legal enactment as shall prohibit Sunday Excursions, Sunday base ball games, Sunday theaters, which are a menace to the Church and country.

Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Your Committee begs to report that while we regret the strained relation existing between capital and labor, we are glad to believe that progress is being made toward a better understanding between them. We hold that the interests of capital and labor are mutual, and can be advanced only through the manifestation of a fraternal spirit and mutual consideration.

We express our alarm at the desecration of the Sabbath throughout our country both by private citizens and public officials, and urge our people everywhere to observe the Sabbath as a holy day and not a holiday.

We rejoice in the progress of prohibition in recent years, in all parts of the country, and urge that the battle still be pushed until the manufacture of, and traffic in intoxicants as a beverage, shall cease throughout our land. We believe this end would speedily be attained if the internal revenue from intoxicants were stopped, and interstate commerce were absolutely forbidden to transport intoxicants into "dry" territory.

We deprecate lawlessness North and South. We hold mob violence to be wrong everywhere and call upon the authorities to use every means at hand to prevent and suppress the same, and to extend the utmost protection to all classes.

Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Whereas, The Board of Sunday Schools has created a department of Sunday School extension and has placed 22 Sunday School missionaries in the field; has organized over 250 new schools, having a membership of more than 10,000; has granted aid in literature and supplies to 1,000 needy Sunday Schools; has given $20,000 to Sunday School work in Foreign Fields; has projected a Teacher Training department, a correspondence course for workers, an Adult Bible Class department and an up-to-date literature; and

Whereas, the Board is educating the Church to the importance of the Sunday School and is planning a propaganda for gathering in the boys and girls whom Christ's Church should save;

Resolved, That, since 8,000,000 children need the religious ministrations of the Protestant Church and $150,000 is absolutely required for our own Missionary and Educational work, we will do our utmost, by public instruction in our congregations and the solicitation of financial help from our people, to assist this Department of the Kingdom of Christ. We strongly commend the observance of Rally Day and will make a sturdy effort to raise our full apportionment of 1½ percent of the ministerial support.

THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE REPORT.

The situation throughout the Country is very encouraging.

Nine of our great States have entirely abolished the legalized Liquor traffic while fourteen others making one-half the number of States in our American Union, have almost freed themselves from the abomination. In the other twenty-three States the people are making most rapid progress so that we begin to see how National extermination of the traffic may be secured in the near future by increased representation in the National Congress.

Appreciating the past success, recognizing the splendid equipment and fearless leadership of the American Anti-Saloon League, we most earnestly urge upon the Legislative Department the imperative necessity of constant diligence in securing such National Legislation as shall in due time usher in the blessed day of the stainless Flag and Saloonless Land. To this end, in sacred honor, we pledge our constant support.

The Thirteenth National Anti-Saloon League Convention is to meet in Chicago, Ill., Monday, December 6th, with a program lasting until Thursday, December 9, 1909.

Being cordially invited to name two representatives with alternates we hereby elect J. M. McClelland and J. W. Potter, and with Thos. Osborn and N. A. Swickard as alternates, to represent us in the Convention.

The coming year will be one of great activity in our Iowa. The expiration of the time limit on the Mulct Petition of Consent one year from next July will put almost the entire State under the Prohibitory law. The liquor people and their friends, will be, indeed already are, very actively engaged in securing new petitions in the Twenty-seven Counties and Thirteen towns in which they are now operating; as well as endeavoring to extend their trade into the dry Counties. They will also do their best at the Primaries in June to secure the nomination of their friends as candidates for the Legislature on the various party tickets. Their efforts must be resisted and their purpose defeated at all hazards.

We heartily endorse the work of the Iowa Anti-Saloon League. In the Legislature it is most helpful in securing enactment of wholesome temperance laws and in defeating proposed measures favoring liquor interests. It secures many valuable decisions from the Supreme Court, greatly aiding the cause of temperance. It has defeated the circulation of the Mulct Petition in Twenty-one Counties and a number of our Iowa towns. It is indispensable everywhere in stimulating public sentiment for law enforcement. In the fight for Constitutional Amendment we look for it to lead the Temperance Forces to victory.

We respectfully request our presiding Bishop Spellmeyer to re-appoint C. S. Cooper, District Superintendent and we hereby nominate C. L. Tennant and Eugene Allen as our trustees of the Iowa Anti-Saloon League. With full confidence in the League we pledge our loyal support.

We commend to all of our Churches the work of the Temperance society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which is the official organization within the Church to carry on the Temperance work in all departments of church activity.

We urge all our churches to hold a temperance anniversary during the year under the auspices of the Quarterly Conference Temperance Committee and that in every Sunday School on Temperance Sundays, an opportunity be given to sign the total abstinence pledge.

Respectfully Submitted.

REPORT OF W. F. M. S. COMMITTEE.

Whereas, the work of our Church in the foreign fields depends largely for its success, upon our consecrated womanhood, and as the W. F. M. S. is the great agency which supplies the demand, therefore be it resolved:

That as pastors we welcome to our charges the representatives of the Society, and thus lend our influence on behalf of this good work.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Whereas, In the province of our Heavenly Father great responsibility has been thrust upon us in the influx of foreigners, especially those congregating in our large cities, by the needs of our fellowmen and women in the Southland, in Utah and among the Indians and where as the Woman's Home Missionary Society has been and is attempting, to meet all these responsibilities;

Resolved, That we invite the representatives of this society to our charges and ask their aid in bringing our people to recognize the privileges of Christian service in our own land; also that this society receive equal recognition and encouragement, from our church to that of the W. F. M. S. We believe the foreign population which is so fast coming to our borders should have the Gospel brought to them in their own language.

Furthermore be it resolved, that we record our hearty appreciation of the work done in Graham Hospital at Keokuk, under the efficient direction of Mrs. L. G. Murphy and pledge our support to this our Conference Hospital.

HOSPITALS.

We greatly rejoice in the prosperity that has attended this branch of the pastor's work, both at the Graham Protestant and the Iowa Methodist Hospitals.

We learn with especial gratification that plans are in hand for enlarging the plant of the Graham Protestant Hospital, and that the new commodious building of the Iowa Methodist Hospital is nearing completion.

We recommend that our pulpits be opened to the representatives of these worthy institutions.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. S. Gardner as Field Secretary of the Graham Protestant Hospital and Rev. W. P. Stoddard as Corresponding Secretary of the Iowa Methodist Hospital.

We nominate for election as members of the Board of Directors of the Iowa Methodist Hospital, Rev. C. L. Stafford, Rev. C. N. Pace and Rev. J. M. McClelland.

CONSTITUTION OF IOWA CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

1. This Association shall be known as the Iowa Conference Historical Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

2. Its object shall be the collection, control and preservation of all books, pamphlets, manuscripts, pictures, or other mementoes and curios placed in its hands, and belonging to said Conference; to see to the collection of such articles relating to our common Methodism, and particularly to said Conference, its preachers, members and institutions.

3. The officers shall be a president, secretary and treasurer, to be appointed annually by the Iowa Annual Conference, who shall serve for one year, or until their successors are appointed.

4. All the preachers of the Conference shall be ex-officio members of the Society, and such of the laity as may pay an entrance fee of one dollar in aid of the funds of the society.

V. An annual meeting shall be held at the place of the session of the annual conference, at which all necessary business shall be transacted.

VI. The regular officers, with two other members, chosen by the annual conference, shall form an executive committee who shall have charge of the affairs of the society during the intervals of the annual meetings.

VII. The executive committee shall at each annual meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint a custodian, who shall have the immediate charge of the property of the Society, under such rules as the Executive Committee may provide. Said officer to hold his office for one year, or during their pleasure.

VIII. As soon as practicable the Society shall provide a suitable room, in some convenient and central location, for a Historical Hall and museum of the Iowa Conference, in which the books and other property of the Society shall be kept. Access thereto may be allowed under rules and regulations as the executive committee may appoint, and none of the articles there deposited shall be removed therefrom except upon consent of the Executive Committee. The said room being under the immediate care of the Custodian.

IX. The executive committee shall provide, when practicable, for an annual address at the session of the conference; and shall take such other steps as may be proper to advance the general interests of the Society.

X. The Secretary, shall report annually to the Conference as to the doings of the Society, and the condition of the property.

XI. These articles may be amended at any annual meeting of the Society, subject to the approval of the annual conference; and the executive committee may provide any necessary by-laws, not inconsistent herewith.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee on District Conference Records wishes to report that the district Conference Records have been examined and report that they are properly kept.

REPORT OF THE DEACONESS BOARD.

The Board nominates R. L. Patterson, J. E. Newsom and Mrs. Naomi Day to fill Class I.

The character of the Misses Jackson, Wirtz and Hopkinson were passed. On recommendation of the Fairfield charge Miss Josephine Ehrnman was licensed and recommended for consecration. The transfer of Miss Charlotte Webb from the Des Moines Conference was received and accepted. The Board of nine in harmony with the request of the Local Board of Graham Hospital, asks that W. S. Gardner be appointed Field Secretary for the coming year. The Rev. R. L. Patterson was authorized to represent the Board of Nine in stationing deaconesses during the coming year.

Miss Charlotte Webb was recommended for consecration. The Conference Board recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That we have noted with great pleasure the splendid record made by your Graham Protestant Hospital, and will co-operate heartily with our W. H. M. S. in the Conference to enlarge the building sufficiently to meet the increasing demands for hospital service, and may God's abundant blessing on our consecrated sisters in their work for God and humanity, and will welcome their representative to our charges to present this important interest.

REPORT OF VISITOR TO GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

Your visitor to Garrett Biblical Institute reports the finding of equipment including grounds, buildings, library and dormitory well provided and kept up to meet the large needs of a growing school.

Class recitations and all public exercises showed the work done to be thorough and covering a range of ministerial training for the time equal to the best.

The report of the treasurer gave the endowment as large and the finances as entirely satisfactory. Special notice was taken by the Board of visitors of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the election of Milton S. Terry, D. D., LL. D., to a professorship in the school and also this resolution on faculty adopted: We the Board of Conference Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute with thirty-two members present—representing twenty-eight conferences—hereby record our profound faith in the faculty of the institute as men of wisdom, probity, sound doctrine and safe spiritual leadership.

Unanimously adopted May 26, 1909.

REPORT OF IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

The trustees of Iowa Wesleyan University beg leave to submit this brief report of the institution's work during the past twelve months.

The college student body increased last year over the preceeding year by 43,—35 percent.

Arrangements have been made to continue the work formerly done in the German College by the engagement of Prof. Leist, as Professor of German Language and Literature, and for the probable retention of Prof. Behrens as his assistant. C. G. Hueftle, a senior of this year, will teach the Mathematics in the Academy, and with Prof.

Munster, a devoted and capable member of our Conference, four members of our faculty are distinctly German. The merger of the German College with Central Wesleyan is an accomplished fact, though against our sincere and persistent protest. The committee of Bishops,—Bishops Walden, Nuelsen and Anderson,—unanimously awarded us the buildings and grounds subject only to the tenancy of the German Methodist congregation, and one-half of the endowment, viz.: $15,495. This is only a slight recognition of the services and sacrifices made by the men of the Iowa Conference. It finally resolved itself into a controversy between two Methodist conferences, and our bishops could do little else than divide the endowment equally.

The regularly invested endowment funds of the institution amount to $61,000. The Elizabeth Hershey Hall is really an endowment, though it is the policy of its governing board to reduce the expenses of living in the Hall to a minimum, and thus the investment is rendered productive at only 2 percent. The property is worth $40,000. To this should be added the President's House, valued at $8,000. This has been increased this year by a gift of 320 acres of Kansas land from E. T. Willits, valued at $10,000.

The raising of the quarter-of-a-million endowment proposed four years ago, made urgent by Andrew Carnegie's offer of four years ago last April to give $2,000 on the first $100,000, is slowly proceeding. But it is proceeding. Some of your brethren do not believe it possible. Nevertheless, all questions before this conference are secondary compared to the proposal to put the college on a substantial financial foundation. We have the oldest college in Iowa—and as good as there is in Iowa. That any of our people should not appreciate it, and send their sons and daughters elsewhere, argues no lack of merit in the college; it testifies rather to that vagary of human nature which thinks that apples are redder and berries thicker in the next county. There is no cleaner body of students in Methodism than at Iowa Wesleyan. Man for man, there is no better faculty in Iowa,—if there are any as good. This college must go on; it is not the future of education that is at stake—it is our future. The test is upon us: we can do it.

I am happy to announce the selection of Elmer E. Lymer, Doctor of Sacred Theology, as Dean to succeed Dr. A. C. Piersel, resigned. His ability as an educator, his distinguished success as a teacher, his wisdom as a counsellor, and his character and example secured his unanimous election by the Trustees, and merits your enthusiastic approbation.

The Church and school, evangelist and teacher, go hand in hand in missionary lands; here in this section of Iowa the Conference and College should shine like a double star, radiating the life and doctrine of the great Teacher.

EDWIN A. SCHELL,
President Iowa Wesleyan University.

MEMOIRS

WESLEY J. SPAULDING.

Wesley J. Spaulding was born in Newark, N. J., April 18, 1827, and died at the home of his daughter in Denver, Colo., February 22, 1909. Early in his life the family moved to La Grange, Ill., from which place he entered DePauw University and was graduated with the class of 1854. In his twentieth year he experienced a genuine conversion which was followed by a clear call to the work of the ministry. He was licensed to preach in 1853 and the following year joined the Indiana Conference on probation. His first appointment was New Philadelphia, the next New Harmony—both extensive circuits. In 1856 he transferred to the Iowa Conference, was received that fall into full connection, ordained a deacon by Bishop Janes and appointed to a professorship—the chair of Greek—in Iowa Wesleyan University. In 1858 he was ordained an elder by Bishop Morris. He remained at the university until the fall of 1861 when he re-entered the pastorate and was stationed at Ottumwa, Ia. In 1862 he resumed his work at the university and continued until 1865, serving the college year 1864-65 as vice-president. In 1865 he transferred to the Indiana Conference and remained until 1870 when he retransferred to the Iowa Conference, serving different charges until the fall of 1875, when he took up once more the duties of a professor in the university. In 1876 he was elected President of Iowa Wesleyan and served in that relation until 1884, when he was succeeded by Dr. J. T. McFarland. Since then he has lived in Mount Pleasant with the exception of the last two years, which have been spent in Denver, Colo. For some weeks he had not been in his usual health and it became apparent that he was weakening rapidly. On February 22 the message came and Wesley J. Spaulding was received into habitations eternal. The funeral services were held in Mount Pleasant Friday, February 26, and were in charge of Dr. J. M. McClelland, superintendent of the Burlington District. Dr. E. E. Lymer of Iowa Wesleyan University read the Scripture lesson and offered prayer. A ministerial sketch prepared by Dr. E. H. Waring, an old friend and Conference associate of Dr. Spaulding, was read. Dr. C. L. Stafford, for seven years President of Iowa Wesleyan University, delivered the principal address, outlining with great clearness the character of the man and emphasizing duly the splendid service which he had rendered the Conference and the Kingdom. Dr. E. A. Schell, now President of Iowa Wesleyan University, spoke with tender appreciation of this stalwart "soldier of the cross." His body was laid to rest beside that of his wife, who passed to her reward in the spring of 1900.—X.

W. J. SPAULDING—AN APPRECIATION.

By Rev. J. C. W. Coxe, L. H. D.

On the 27th of February there came to me a letter, addressed in familiar chirography, which awakened most pleasurable emotions as I proceeded to open it. For was not the writer one of my cherished correspondents, whose keen discrimination gave point to a racy pen, and whose grace and goodness gave flavor to every line? But a shadow fell before the first sentence was ended. "Dr. Spaulding died on the 22d inst." I had a post card from him on the 8th, saying that he was ill, and had in consequence been unable to meet, at the station in Denver, a mutual friend and his wife, who were en route for Los Angeles; but the skilled physician had pronounced "vital organs all sound"—"a good report," added the cheery and hopeful writer. And I had winged back my message of sympathy and prayerful hope for a speedy recovery. But it was not so to be. The Master called, and the valiant soul laid aside earthly toils and cares to go to meet "the King in His beauty."

I am sore bereft. "I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan; thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women." For more than a third of a century we had been kindred in spirit. Gentle, courteous, considerate, unselfish, ready and eager to serve a friend, wise in counsel, generous in sympathy, catholic in nature, wide visioned as a prophetic seer, yet modest and kind in his judgments of men, Wesley J. Spaulding was a man of a thousand. In the family circle he was as guileless a soul as ever opened to the kiss of the morning; in social relations a genial friend and companion; to the young a wise and helpful counselor; to his intimates—alas! they have nearly all passed on before him!—a true and tender friend, whose greeting was "sweetness and light," whose hand clasp ever carried a heart in it. And what a royal heart it was! The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table bade people beware to whom they entrusted the key to the side door of the heart. They were few who were admitted to the privilege of side door entrance to my brother's life and to the intimate fellowship involved therein; they met a royal soul, and were royally entertained. The wealth of his friendship was unbounded; he delighted to pour out with lavish affluence the treasures of his heart to these chosen few to whom he was knit as with hooks of steel. They knew him, and loved him; he knew them and trusted them unreservedly. The converse of these kindred souls was a thing apart from common life—an exchange of commodities not to be measured by common coin of the realm—the tinsel clink of compliment—but only by fine gold; bearing the image of the King. Memories of many an hour with this rare soul will be to me a strain of music from a celestial choir.

My brother has gone to join "the general assembly and Church of the first born, which are written in heaven," there to meet Corkhill and McDonald and Simmons, and Evans, and the wife who cheered his youth and strengthened his manhood. What a meeting that will be! And we who so loved him linger awhile, awaiting the King's message, working the King's will, wondering when and where the chariot may come for us; yet content with Richard Baxter to sing:

"Lord it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;
To love and serve Thee is my share,
And that Thy grace must give."

955 West Thirty-fifth Place, Los Angeles, Cal., March 2, 1909.

MRS. MARY R. STEWART.

Few people living the quiet, home life, such as characterized the later years of Mrs. Mary R. Stewart, who has so recently passed from our midst to her reward, have been better known, greater loved, and more respected than was she. As the widow of Rev. I. I. Stewart, one of the early itinerants of Iowa, and especially of the Iowa Conference, since the decease of her husband, which occurred in 1864, she has made her home in Mt. Pleasant, and so not only from her relation to the church as the wife, and afterwards the widow, of one of the men who laid the foundation of Methodism in Iowa, but also from her long residence in our midst, has she become widely and well known and greatly respected by a large circle of friends. She was born in Ireland in 1822, and when but three years of age came to this country. Her people first settled in Philadelphia and from there moved to Kentucky, afterwards to Illinois, and then later in 1840 settled in Iowa while it was yet a territory. In 1844 she was married to Rev. I. I. Stewart on September 19, in the city of Des Moines, and for twenty years itinerated with her husband stationed at Des Moines, Burlington, Keokuk, Ft. Madison, New London, Knoxville, Oskaloosa, Mt. Pleasant and other places. Her husband's death in 1864 left her the care of a family of children, and settling in Mt. Pleasant she devoted her life to the care of these. Five of the children with the husband had preceded her to the other side. Two of the children died in infancy; the others after they had grown to manhood and womanhood. Mother Stewart was happily converted when quite young and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was a faithful member at the time of her decease. No one loved the church more dearly than did she and none were more true and faithful to all its interests or more regular when possible for her to be there, in attendance upon the services of the church; in her the pastor always had a true friend, and the church a loyal supporter. She passed to her reward Feb. 18th, 1909, at her home in Mt. Pleasant. The funeral services were held in the home Feb. 20th, conducted by Dr. C. L. Stafford, who for many years had been intimate in the family. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance at the funeral services and followed the remains to their final resting place in Forest Home cemetery, where the regular burial service of the church was read by Pastor Ingham, and the body committed to the earth to await the resurrection morn.

REV. J. A. SINCLAIR.

James A., the son of Edwin and Nancy Sinclair, was born in Vermont, October 30, 1855, and died at his home in Montrose, Iowa, July 8, 1909, aged 53 years, 8 months and 8 days.

He came with his parents to Iowa when he was but a child and has lived in this State ever since. He was married to Miss Lydia Ann Telfer Dec. 24, 1878. To this union were born nine children, five daughters and four sons. The youngest two, a son and a daughter, died in infancy. Those who, with the wife, survive the deceased, are Nellie, now wife of Rev. J. E. Evans, Bamford T., William R., Erwin W., Margaret, Lydia and Abbie.

The deceased is survived also by his aged mother, one brother and four sisters, who, with his numerous friends mourn his untimely death, for it seems to us that he was cut down almost in his prime, when many years of useful activity awaited him. He was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church early in his boyhood and soon found his place of activity and service in the kingdom of our Lord and Master.

Soon after his marriage he had a profound conviction that he should dedicate his life to the ministry of the word of God and in keeping with that conviction spent some time in preparation in the Iowa Wesleyan University at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

He entered the Iowa Conference in the fall of 1883 and served the following charges: Cincinnati, Pulaski, Lebanon, Riverside, Muscatine circuit, Victor, Oxford, Thornburg, Salem, Batavia, Floris and Montrose.

From 1904 to 1907 he was supernumerary in the Conference and during that time did some service as a field secretary to the Iowa Wesleyan University.

He did hard and faithful service on his charges and will be greatly missed when we come up to our annual gathering this autumn. He was well and favorably known by a large number of friends and the sympathy of the entire Conference is with the grief-stricken family.

The funeral services were in charge of Rev. A. V. Kendrick, superintendent of the Keokuk District, who was assisted by the following: Rev. Mr. Throw of the Presbyterian church of Montrose, Ia.; Revs. J. W. Potter, H. B. Scoles, C. A. Field, H. E. Butler and U. S. Smith of the Iowa Conference.

These services were held in the Methodist church of Montrose at 4 o'clock on Friday and the body was taken to Mt. Pleasant, Ia., where the burial services were in charge of Rev. H. A. Ingham, assisted by many of his brethren of the Iowa Conference. S.

MRS. C. P. REYNOLDS.

Saturday morning, January 30, 1909, at about 5:30, Martha Orr Reynolds died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lucy M. Atlee, in the city of Ft. Madison, Iowa, where, on Saturday evening, short funeral services were held, after which the remains were taken to Toledo, Ia., for burial in Woodlawn Cemetery, beside the remains of her husband, Rev. C. P. Reynolds, who preceded her on June 26, 1891, to the other shore.

Martha Orr Reynolds was born near Covington, Kentucky, February 16, 1823. While still a girl, her parents moved to Indiana, and later to Iowa, settling near Muscatine.

On November 4, 1840, she was united in marriage to C. P. Reynolds, with whom she shared the joys and sorrows, conflicts and privations of this life for upwards of half a century. This union was blessed with seven children of whom two daughters and one son preceded her to the better land. Three daughters and one son survive to mourn the loss of a mother; Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of Toledo, Iowa; Mrs. Lucy M. Atlee, of Ft. Madison, Iowa; Hrs. Amanda M. Bowdle, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Henry R. Reynolds, of Abilene, Texas.

She was early converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal church, of which she was a consistent member up to the time of her death.

From 1853 to 1885 she shared with her husband in the privations and hardships, and assisted him in his labors and shared in his joys as an itinerant minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Iowa. In 1885, she with her husband retired to Toledo, Iowa, where they lived together until his death in 1891, after which time she remained in Toledo until about two years ago, since which time she has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Atlee, in Ftt. Madison, where her death occurred.

Mrs. Reynolds was well known in Toledo even for years prior to her moving to the city with her husband, she having resided here, with her husband, for one year in the early 70's, and having been a constant visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walters.

She was a member of the W. C. T. U. and also a charter member of the Toledo Woman's Club. Mrs. Reynolds was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Toledo. She possessed a rich and full Christian experience. To her the shining light grew brighter unto the perfect day. Her quickened sense of spiritual perception gave her a keen insight into the hidden things of God, upon which she anchored her faith and hope. She was gentle in Spirit, unassuming in manner, and real in her life. Heaven with her had already begun, and that which is commonly called death was to her the open doorway unto the fullness of that which she termed life.

MRS. W. F. COWLES.

Martha Lovett was born in Holms County, Ohio, February 27, 1833, and departed this life in Burlington, Iowa, May 30, 1909. She was married to Geo. C. Barnes in her native county May 13, 1856, came with him to Iowa and settled in Ottumwa in the fall of 1863. Two sons were born of this union, both of whom grew to manhood and both, with their father preceded her to the home beyond, Mr. Barnes dying Sept. 11, 1870. On August 9, 1876, she was married to the Rev. W. F. Cowles, D. D., of the Iowa Conference.

She heartily entered into the work of a wife of a Christian minister, and became an able helpmeet to her husband, and a most efficient Christian worker. She was one of the charter members of the first Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Ottumwa, and a member of the first Woman's Home Missionary Society organized in the city of Burlington, and for many years the treasurer of the Conference Woman's Home Missionary Society.

In 1888 she came to Burlington with her husband, and has since then made her home in this city. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in childhood, and was all through her life a most active and earnest Christian worker.

She and her husband Dr. Cowles, were among the leaders in the erection of the Grace M. E. Church of Burlington, contributing their means, time, and influence to the enterprise. She was a member of this church, a teacher in the Sunday school, and an active member of all the various societies of the church. She was devoted to the work of Christian philanthropy, and donated $5,500 for the erection of wing to the Ottumwa hospital, to be known as the Barnes memorial.

She leaves three sisters and two brothers; two sisters and one brother living in Ohio, one brother in California, and Miss Amina who has made her home with Mrs. Cowles for twenty-four years; and three step-sons, William B. Cowles of Weskan, Kans., Gardner

Cowles, of Des Moines, LeMonte Cowles of Burlington, and two step-daughters, Mrs. A. G. McColm of Sheldon, Iowa, and Miss Lida A. Cowles, both of Sheldon, Iowa.

She was taken sick about the first of October, and was not able to sit up a whole day since that time, and gradually grew weaker until the end came. She was one of the most patient of sufferers, and bravely endured her affliction as seeing Him who is invisible. For some time she saw the end approaching and, like the apostle of old, felt that to depart and be with Christ would be far better.

The funeral was held at her late residence June 2d, at 9:00 a. m. and at Ottumwa in the First M. E. Church at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

MINUTES OF THE FIRST MEETING OF THE LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF THE IOWA CONFERENCE.

On August 7th, 1909, a circular letter signed by G. H. Burns, C. B. Quick, L. H. Morgan, Elmer Sikes, A. N. Jarvis, J. K. Latta, J. H. Kiel, and H. W. Vandyke was sent out to each charge in the Iowa Conference, suggesting that such charge elect two delegates to meet at Winfield, Iowa, Sept. 11th in mass meeting to organize a Laymen's Association..

As a result of this call 43 delegates representing 33 charges met and organized as suggested. The meeting was called to order by A. N. Jarvis and Mr. J. M. Beck, of Centerville, was elected temporary chairman and L. H. Morgan temporary secretary.

The following committee was appointed to draft a Constitution: A. N. Jarvis, Chairman; J. W. Neasham, I. G. H. Noland, David Lodwick, and H. G. Wormhoudt.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed: C. B. Quick, Chairman; A. M. Graham, Chris. Haw, Gus. Johnson, and J. Moler.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

WHEREAS the Iowa Conference is engaged in raising a Permanent Fund for the Benefit of our worn out worthy preachers,

RESOLVED, That we will, as lay members, co-operate with the Financial Secretary of this fund, Rev. J. C. Kendrick, and will welcome him whenever he shall visit our several charges.

RESOLVED, That we as lay members will do all we can to increase the benevolent collections of the church until they shall equal the amount expended for current expenses.

RESOLVED, That we recommend to the lay members that they subscribe for, and have in their homes, the church papers, and especially believe that the interests of our church would be advanced and more intelligent Methodists developed if the Official members have at least one Advocate in their homes.

RESOLVED, That we appreciate the importance of the education of the young people of the Conference and in order to secure a strong ministry and loyal membership in the church of the future we earnestly recommend that we encourage the attendance of our Methodist young people at our Conference school, the Iowa Wesleyan University at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

These resolutions were adopted as read by the Committee.

It was moved by J. W. Neasham that this meeting approve of the proposed reduction of the number of Districts in the Conference from 5 to 4. Motion lost.

Mr. Geo. Bloomer then introduced the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That it is our conviction that for proper supervision of the work of the Iowa Conference the number of District Superintendents should remain as at present, viz.—five. Motion lost.

It was moved by A. N. Jarvis that we approve the movement looking towards the forming of a Federation of the Methodists of Iowa in an Iowa Methodist Commission. Motion carried.

J. W. Neasham moved that a copy of the minutes of the Association be furnished the Conference Secretary. Motion carried.

The report of the Committee on Constitution was received and after some discussion adopted.

The election of officers was then taken up and nomination of President was made by informal ballot, which resulted: J. M. Beck, 16; J. W. Neasham, 3; C. E. Ward, 1; J. Moler, 1; A. N. Jarvis, 1. On motion the informal ballot was declared formal, and Mr. J. M. Beck of Centerville was declared elected.

On motion the rules were suspended and L. H. Morgan of Burlington was elected Secretary, and C. E. Ward of Fairfield was elected Treasurer.

Nominations for Vice Presidents were then called for by Districts and the following elected:

R. G. Popham, Marengo, Muscatine District.
A. W. Shearer, Winfield, Burlington District.
David Lodwick, Mystic, Keokuk District.
J. Wormhoudt, Ottumwa, Ottumwa District.
John Moler, Montezuma, Oskaloosa District.

The following resolution was handed in:

RESOLVED, That we express our hearty appreciation of the kindness of the friends in Winfield, and especially to the people of the Presbyterian Church for the use of their rooms during the Convention.

Convention adjourned.

The Constitution as adopted reads as follows:

ART. 1. Name. The name of this organization shall be "The Laymen's Association of the Iowa Conference."

ART. 2. Object. The object of this association is to promote the local and conference interests of the Church, and to enlist all laymen in the general activities of the denomination.
